Frankie & Johnny in the Clair de Lune

By Terrence McNally

Tuesday 9th – Saturday 13th March

Music by Lynette Webster

Starring International Hollywood Stars KELLY MCGILLIS and ROLF SAXON

Hard-boiled waitress Frankie and cock-sure chef Johnny find themselves in bed together after a first date. Johnny is certain he has found his soul mate, but Frankie is far more cautious and less inclined to jump to conclusions. As the night unfolds, they slowly begin to reveal themselves to each other as they take tentative steps towards the start of a possible relationship in this funny and tender romantic comedy.

International Hollywood star Kelly McGillis is known for box office film smashes including "Witness" with Harrison Ford, for which she received a golden globe nomination, "The Accused" with Jodie Foster, and of course the biggest box office film of 1986 - "Top Gun" with Tom Cruise. Rolf Saxon's many films include "Mission: Impossible" and "Entrapment".

Tickets: £12 - £27.50

One Man Lord of the Rings

Friday 19th & Saturday 20th March

Charles Ross, creator of the hugely successful One Man Star Wars Trilogy, returns with his equally hilarious follow-up – One Man Lord of the Rings – in which he recreates the enchanting world of Middle-earth, armed with nothing more than a pair of elbow pads and his outrageous imagination. No props or costumes are required as Ross hurtles through the Tolkien trilogy – The Fellowship Of The Ring, The Two Towers and The Return Of The King – in just 3,600 seconds of unbelievable kinetic entertainment. If you've seen the films, read the books and named your first-born Frodo, don't miss Ross' zany take on the ever-popular epic saga.

'If you liked The Lord of the Rings trilogy, you'll love Charlie Ross' version - and if you didn't, well, at least his is shorter' - Sir Ian McKellen

The Tiger Lillies

Tuesday 23rd March

The Songs of Shockheaded Peter and other Gory Verses

The Tiger Lillies are the Godfathers of alternative cabaret; direct from a sell-out London West-End run and the Edinburgh Festival, they take their show celebrating 20 years of dark and deviant theatrics on tour.

For the first time in years, they will perform songs from the Olivier Award-Winning smash Shockheaded Peter, their Grammy nominated album The Gorey End and other deranged favourites.

'Fleshily engorged with the pustule throb of the garishly gaudy and gloriously obscene' Time Out

Ani Mru-Mru

Saturday 1st May

Ani Mru-Mru is the leading Polish cabaret act, the winner of many prestigious awards and prizes. The group consists of three guys, each being the opposite of the other, who constitute an extremely explosive mixture.

What they present on stage is really amazing because even a simple gesture or an ordinary phrase in their performance is hilarious. Unlike many cabaret acts these days, Ani Mru-Mru tries to keep away from the politics and finds plenty of other stuff to entertain even the most demanding audience.

It is probably the busiest Polish cabaret act and Ani Mru-Mru is undisputable master in this field. Performed in Polish

Katherine Jenkins and The National Symphony Orchestra

Tuesday, 13th July

Katherine Jenkins is the alternative opera star. A popular phenomenon, rightly referred to as 'Britain's favourite singer'. She has pop star glamour with a girl-next-door personality, performs in rugby stadiums as much as opera houses and has outsold Maria Callas.

She is the only singer in musical history to simultaneously hold the Number 1, 2, 3 and 4 position in the classical album charts, which she achieved with Premiere, Second Nature, Living the Dream and Serenade.

Believe, released through Warner Brothers Records in October shot straight into the top 10 of the UK charts and continues to go from strength to strength. With Katherine set to head out on her first UK area tour in March 2010, the sky is the limit right now for the first bona fide British diva.
